

Your privacy is important to us. This notice explains our online information practices and the way your information is used when you visit our website (www.oakland-nj.org).

The Borough of Oakland may collect certain personal information about you when you visit our website. Examples of personal information we may collect include your name, address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address.

The Borough of Oakland will use personal information you provide solely to respond to an inquiry, process an application form you have completed on various sections of our website (including but not limited to the payment of taxes, water and sewer charges and registration fees), and to provide you with information related to various services, programs, events and matters of municipal interest. The Borough of Oakland typically will not contact you about other matters, unless you specifically request it, nor will we share, rent, or sell your personal information, except where there is a legal requirement to disseminate the personal information. It is possible that the Borough of Oakland may be forced to disclose certain personal information in response to a pending legal process, such as a court order, a subpoena, law enforcement agency's request, or a request under the Open Public Records Act (OPRA) N.J.S. 47:1A-1 et seq. Dissemination may also be warranted upon advise of legal counsel to ensure compliance with existing case law.

We reserve the right to revise this policy or any part of it from time to time. Please review the policy periodically for changes. Please feel free to contact the Borough of Oakland should you have any questions regarding the use and dissemination of your personal information.
